

Today, Massachusetts residents and businesses create more waste than ever before: 1.3 tons per person per year. More than half of all recyclable and compostable items end up in the trash. Not recycling these items costs local governments to spend over $100 million to landfill and burn recyclables.

Learn what you can do today by visiting www.massrecycle.org or emailing info@massrecycle.org.

From: _____

To:
 MassRecycle
 60 Thoreau Street, #203
 Concord, MA 01453

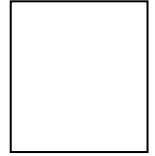

Today, Massachusetts residents and businesses create more waste than ever before: 1.3 tons per person per year. More than half of all recyclable and compostable items end up in the trash. Not recycling these items costs local governments to spend over $100 million to landfill and burn recyclables.

Learn what you can do today by visiting www.massrecycle.org or emailing info@massrecycle.org.

From: _____

To:
 MassRecycle
 60 Thoreau Street, #203
 Concord, MA 01453

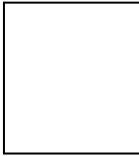

Today, Massachusetts residents and businesses create more waste than ever before: 1.3 tons per person per year. More than half of all recyclable and compostable items end up in the trash. Not recycling these items costs local governments to spend over $100 million to landfill and burn recyclables.

Learn what you can do today by visiting www.massrecycle.org or emailing info@massrecycle.org.

From: _____

To:
 MassRecycle
 60 Thoreau Street, #203
 Concord, MA 01453

Today, Massachusetts residents and businesses create more waste than ever before: 1.3 tons per person per year. More than half of all recyclable and compostable items end up in the trash. Not recycling these items costs local governments to spend over $100 million to landfill and burn recyclables.

Learn what you can do today by visiting www.massrecycle.org or emailing info@massrecycle.org.

From: _____

To:
 MassRecycle
 60 Thoreau Street, #203
 Concord, MA 01453

